PRACTICAL ORGANIZATIONS NOT AMENABLE TO ANTI-CORPORATE LEGISLATION

"EFFECTIVE SUBSTITUTES FOR INCORPORATION"

BY JOHN H. SEARS,
of the St. Louis Bar.

Explanation and forms of organizations having usual advantages of corporations, but not subject to corporate taxation, reports, qualification under foreign corporation laws, etc.

These organizations are known as "Massachusetts Trusts." A recent decision of the United States Supreme Court holds that they are effected under the common law. They are, therefore, of interest everywhere.

A SMALL BOOK—With BIG IDEAS

This book is published by the author. It is a monograph that no lawyer would wish to be without. It deals with a wholly new idea of business combination which is free from all corporation restrictions and has become very popular in Massachusetts, where even the public corporations are making use of it.

THE BEST FORM BOOK ON FIRST PLEADINGS

Gregory's Common Law Declarations

BY

GEORGE C. GREGORY,

of the Richmond (Va.) Bar

Deposition of a "Practicing Lawyer" On Behalf of this Work

Q. What pleading gives you the most trouble?

A. My declaration, of course.

Q. How often have you been thrown out of court or limited in your recovery or greatly delayed in the hearing of your case by unfortunate errors in your petition?

A. Not a few times, I am sorry to say.

Q. Did you know that there was a work that would have saved you these mistakes?

A. No; what book is it? I should certainly like to have it.

Q. That book is Gregory's Common Law Declarations, containing 109 complete forms for beginning an action at law and covering fully every point from parties to the prayer for relief. Don't you think such a book would be useful to you?

A. I think it would be absolutely necessary, provided I could rely on each form.

Q. Every form in this work is sanctioned by several authorities cited in a note thereto. Is this sufficient?

A. Certainly. And you may send me a copy of this work with bill therefor by the first mail out of St. Louis.

CENTRAL LAW JOURNAL'S INTERNATIONAL LAW LIST

A list composed of subscribers to the CENTRAL LAW JOURNAL in good standing, and recommended by us to subscribers for use in the interchange of legal business. We advise that terms and fees for service be arranged by correspondence, as bar association rules in different localities make it impossible to publish a uniform scale of fees. Kindly mention the CENTRAL LAW JOURNAL when corresponding with attorneys whose names appear in this list.
